

OLD POINT COMFORT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OLD POINT COMFORT, VA., April 28.—The guests who are at Old Point for the spring season, are finding the days very attractive. There is still a great deal of entertaining being done, and since the weather has gotten warm enough for tennis and golf, they have become immensely popular.

Among those who entertained during the week were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Towser, of Poughkeepsie, who gave a luncheon on Sunday aboard their yacht; Mrs. Harry C. Barnes, who was the hostess at a series of bridge luncheons; Mrs. Cornelius DeWitt Wilcox, who gave a luncheon, and Captain Malcolm Young, U. S. A., who gave a dinner at the Cham-bellin on Saturday evening for Misses Julia and Margaret Walke, of Fort Rod-man, Mass.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Herbert C. Woodfin, of Hampton, gave a large card party for Mrs. Dawson J. Blackmon, of Cincinnati. Among her guests were Mrs. John B. Kimberly, Mrs. Francis S. Brown, Mrs. John H. Gifford and Miss Anne Gifford, of C. Point.

Mrs. Lawrence S. Brown, who was one of the most attractive of the young matrons at the Cham-bellin for the Easter season, has returned to her home at Fort McKimley, Me.

Richmonders recently registered at the Cham-bellin include Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan, Miss Frances Scott and Miss Frederica Campbell.

Gifford and Miss Anne Gifford, of Old Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Whitcomb, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McWaters, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hall, Miss Janet Hall, Miss Catherine Hall, Evans-ton, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Smith, New York; Mrs. H. H. Crapo-Smith, Detroit; Mrs. Frank Willett, Flint, Mich.

BLACKSBURG

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BLACKSBURG, VA., April 28.—Miss Ruby Chevin, of Richmond, has returned to her home after spending several days at Tutwiler's hotel.

Miss Nan Davis, of Lynchburg, was the guest of Mrs. J. B. Tutwiler for a few days during the week.

Mr. John Thompson Brown, of Brier-field, the rector of the Board of Visitors of the Institute, spent Monday and Tuesday on the campus.

Miss Esie Archer, of Richmond, who has been the guest of Mrs. C. M. Newman, at Tutwiler's, has returned to her home.

Mr. D. Tucker Brown, formerly of the Institute, but now of New York, spent several days here during the week. Mr. Brown has been in bad health for several weeks, and came here with the hope of recovery.

Mrs. Charles E. Vawter, of the Institute, and her little son are visiting Mrs. Vawter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, in Salem.

Mrs. Richardson, of Bedford, formerly Miss Baker, of the Institute, is visiting at the home of Prof. L. R. Pritchard, on the campus.

Mr. Corey, of Norfolk, spent a few days with his son, N. B. Corey, during the week.

Dr. W. F. Henderson has returned from Petersburg, where he went to look after Mr. William Lybrook, who is in poor health and is seeking its recovery in Giles county.

Mrs. Robert Page and her three children, Robert, Donald and Elizabeth, have returned to their home near Welch, W. Va., after several weeks' visit to Mrs. Page's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Klyps.

Miss Willie Penn, of Roanoke, has returned to her home after having spent several days with Mrs. John Hampton Hoge, on Main Street.

Prof. Geo. W. Walker has returned home from Newport News, where he went to preside over the Virginia Sunday-School Association Convention.

Mr. Joseph Bryant, formerly of the Institute, but now with the South and Western railroad, spent a few days at the Institute during the week.

Mr. Homer Atkinson, a former student at the Institute, now chief clerk for MacArthur Brothers, the Tidewater railroad contractors, visited the Institute Wednesday.

Mr. O. G. Hallinger, formerly associated with Mr. J. H. Woolwine, has opened up a business near Big Tunnel, on the Tidewater railroad.

Prof. Charles E. Vawter spent a few days in Salem during the week.

Miss Bessie Davy is visiting friends in Newport this week.

Several parties have been formed among the young people to hunt for wild flowers, and trailing arbutus has been brought in in great quantities.

Miss Anne Henderson has returned to Hollins after several days' visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Henderson.

BUCHANAN

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BUCHANAN, VA., April 28.—Ex-Governor Tyler spent Thursday in Buchanan, en route for Abingdon to attend the meeting of the Presbytery there. He was in his usual health and spirits. He spent the time with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Henle.

Miss Lucy Beale has returned home, after a delightful winter in New York.

The new Baptist minister, Rev. Mr. Cook, has arrived and taken charge of his new field of labor. His family are comfortably established in their present home, near the village.

Recognition services will be held in the Baptist Church Friday night, and other churches will attend.

The Buchanan High School closes its present session Wednesday, May 2nd, with appropriate exercises. A class of six young ladies will graduate with high honors.

The Methodists are most active in the work of raising money for the building of their new church, and have the sympathy and encouragement of the whole community.

The farmers are much pleased with the fine promise of the wheat crop at this season.

The Virginia Can Company is forging ahead and increasing its size and strength all the time. And still another plant is spoken of in the near future.

WILLIAMSBURG

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., April 28.—With the warm weather of the past week the ice factory has begun making ice. In a few days the wagons will again be on the streets.

Mr. A. S. Edwards, clerk of the Circuit Court of Surry county, has been spending several weeks with Mr. K. T. Armistead, Mr. Edwards is one of the oldest clerks in point of service in Virginia.

He first became clerk of the courts of Surry in 1870, just thirty-six years ago, and has held the office continuously since then. He has the reputation of being one of the best clerks in the State, his long service having familiarized him with the work.

Mr. Edwards was formerly a resident of this city, having been admitted to the bar here in 1868.

Mr. Osborn and family, of Plandrecht, South Dakota, have arrived here and taken up their residence in the West End.

Contractor Smith, of Washington, who has the contract for building the new jail, put his men to work on the foundations last week, and the work is progressing very rapidly.

A series of revival services have been

Soudont has sold on its merits for over 60 years and never will be offered to the public on any other grounds.

We Make Big Claims for the efficacy of Soudont, and we are prepared to stand back of and prove every claim.

It is positively a Non-Acid Dentifrice and is free from grit or any other substances that would be injurious to the teeth, gums or mouth, and should be the home dentifrice of all who are interested in the welfare of these vital organs, upon which so much depends for the general health of the body.

HALL & RUCKEL, New York City. Litters Paper and Directions for testing your dentifrice for acid will be sent upon receipt of a 2-cent stamp.

carried on in the Baptist Church during the present week by the pastor, Rev. J. S. Harrell, assisted by Rev. A. A. Butler, of Newport News.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Geddy spent the early part of the week in Toano, Mrs. Geddy on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Piggott, Mr. Geddy also visiting his mother.

Mr. F. K. Hynson has been spending the past few days in Norfolk visiting friends.

Col. Blexton visited friends in Richmond during the early part of the week.

Miss Blanche Carter, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. Gregory Spencer, has returned to his home in Richmond.

Miss Jennie Tanner, of Petersburg, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. A. R. Goodwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Monquin, of New York, who have been on a visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Monquin, have returned home.

Miss Grace Jones will leave during the early part of next week for Washington, D. C., where she will enter the Garfield Memorial Hospital to begin training as a professional nurse.

Mrs. H. D. Cole spent several days of this week with friends in Norfolk.

Miss Lucy Lamb, who has been visiting Mrs. Cole, returned to her home with her.

How It Happened.

Insurance Examiner—This applicant you brought her seems to be on the verge of delirium-tremens.

Insurance Agent—Oh, that's all right! I've had to keep him drunk for over two weeks in order to get him here at all!—Puck.

West Point, Va.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WEST POINT, VA., April 28.—Mr. Robert Turner, whose family lives in West Point and who was reported as having sustained very serious injuries, last week, by falling from his engine while going around the turn-table in Richmond, is recovering so rapidly as can be expected. Several members of his family have visited him at the retreat in Richmond since his accident last week.

There was a fire on C Street Sunday night in the house of Martha Garlick (colored), which did not do any harm, but was soon gotten under control by the Volunteer Fire Company. The roof was destroyed.

Dr. C. V. Vaughn, in spite of frosts and snow and untoward circumstances, has succeeded in infusing into the soil the Baptist Farmer's crop of the warmth of Florida, which he lived thirty years, to bring forth Irish potatoes at this early date.

He planted potatoes in February and had a dish on his table this week. Dr. Vaughn left Friday, April 27th, to attend the military and doctors' meeting which will be held in connection with the Baptist Church at Saluda, in Middlesex, for three days. He is to deliver an address during the meeting on Sunday.

The services of the Rev. T. C. Walters, a missionary of the Catholic Church, of Richmond, conducted this week in the Masonic Hall, have been largely attended. Appropriate services were held by the West Point Lodge, A. F. and A. M., on Thursday night, in their hall, as a memorial to their deceased brother, John Paul Jones.

A communication has been received from Mrs. T. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster. She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

She spent the fall of 1905 in California, and was with Mrs. L. H. Parker, who was Mrs. Sallie Branch Craven, of West Point, stating that she was not injured in the recent California disaster.

Somebody Must Win the Magnificent

Cable Upright Grand Piano

Value, $400

Everybody can try for the prize. You do not have to buy to secure the right to compete. You do not have to bind yourself to any conditions of any kind. You can compete as often as you like, and your efforts will be received and judged fairly.

$24,000 in Cash Certificates, Ranging in Value from $100 to $25, Will be Distributed Among 560 Competitors in Addition to the Beautiful Piano That is Offered as a First Prize.

The object of the competition is to further introduce the magnificent line of Pianos and Organs which The Cable Company manufactures and distributes to the people of Virginia and North Carolina.

This great competition is backed and guaranteed by the millions of capital of The Cable Company, and there is absolutely nothing that can be said against the integrity of the offer.

Suppose, for instance, you should win one of the $100 certificates. It entitles you to a credit of $100 on the purchase of any Piano sold by The Cable Company—any one of the famous line—Mason & Hamlin, Conover, Cable, Kingsbury, Wellington, DeKoven Pianos.

If you win a $100 certificate, you can present it and buy a $300 Piano for $200. It is just as good as a hundred-dollar bill with this Company towards the purchase of a Piano; and if you yourself cannot use the certificate, then dispose of it to one of your friends who can. This same rule applies to the prize certificates of any denomination.

This is not a scheme, but a bona-fide opportunity to win, first, a $400 Piano, absolutely free, and, in addition, secure prizes that will be worth $100 to $25, which can be applied on the purchase of a Piano. Mind you, the Cable Company does not expect to give away hundred and twenty-five dollar bills. It expects to sell Pianos, and offers 560 chances of getting credits on the purchasing-price ranging from $100 to $25.

Write or Call on Us for Information.

The Cable Company,

Richmond, Va.

The Globe Clothing Company. The Globe Clothing Company.

Men's and Young Men's

High-Class Suits

for Spring.

Supreme qualities all pure worsteds and all wool Cheviots in the very latest effects. All new spring designs, in new effects and color combinations, the richest styles of the season; new grays, brown mixtures, tan effects and other new spring shades. Beautiful garments, new single and double-breasted models, superbly tailored, made with style and grace, lined with Venetian and Serge and elegantly finished.

Garments Just Completed
From the Globe Workrooms

$7.50, $10, $12, $15, $16.50, $18, $20, $25

Spring Knee Pants Suits for the Boys

All the pretty new spring styles, in Norfoks, with Knicker-bocker Pants, Buster Blouse, Sailor Blouse, Russian Blouse, Double Breasted and other novelties, in bright new Cheviots, Cassimeres, Worsteds, Serges, Scotchies and Tweeds, in all sorts of new patterns, and colorings; nicely tailored and double stitched throughout. Every garment is guaranteed for style, fit, wear and durability.

$1.48, $1.98, $2.48, $2.98,
$3.48, $3.98, $5.00, $6.00

A Good Bat and Ball Free in Children's Department.

Free Repairs THE GLOBE Money Refunded
BROAD AND SEVENTH STS.

V. M. I. German.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, VA., April 28.—Easter week at the Virginia Military Institute this year was one to be remembered with pleasure by the military boys. The crowds of visitors began to arrive Thursday afternoon, and a battalion parade there was quite a number of gay Easter bonnets and parasols to cheer the corps as it passed in review before the officer in charge. It was an amusing sight to see the cadets hurrying to their rooms in order to change from dress to fatigue uniform and get back on the parade ground before the young ladies had left.

Friday morning a number of very excited girls got up early to see guard mounting, and though their eyes were heavy with sleep, they seemed to enjoy the ceremony. Thereafter at each formation there was an appreciative congregation of "cadies."

Friday noon Miss Helen Stevens, of Richmond arrived, bringing on her private car a party of six girls for the dances, and altogether the blue skies and sunny weather of Easter week saw an unusually beautiful throng of visitors in Lexington. At the German Friday night, at the hop Saturday night, and in all the intervals of time the cadets could steal from their duties, they created much joy in the corps that many cadets are in arrest for infractions of discipline. As the train pulled out Monday morning, the desolate prisoners in the grim old barracks on the hill caught these words wafted from the disappearing crowd of girls: "Only a soldier boy that's all you know." The rest of the song was drowned out by a derisive toot of the engine.

In the German Friday night, the figures, led by Cadets Caffee, Perry and Allen, were very clever, and made a striking picture, with the daintily rowned girls weaving in and out of the ranks of stately cadets, resplendent with gold lace and brass buttons. The Virginia Military Institute orchestra furnished excellent music.

Among those present and dancing were: Miss Robertson, of Elizabeth City, N. C., with Cadet Dign; Miss Mason, of Washington, D. C., with Cadet O'Reilly; Miss Tanner, of Richmond, Va., with Cadet Stevens; Miss Nell, of Charlottesville, Va., with Cadet Allen; Miss Elaine, of Charlottesville, Va., with Cadet Campbell; Miss Edgerton, of Petersburg, Va., with Cadet E. Rankin; Miss Evelyn Williams, of Washington, D. C., with Cadet C. P. Nolan; Miss Willie Williams, of Staunton, Va., with Cadet T. Elliott; Miss N. Patton, of San Francisco, Cal., with Cadet DeVault; Miss Christian, of Lynchburg, Va., with Cadet Sheard; Miss Hine, of Jacksonville, Fla., with Cadet Burroughs; Miss Grover, of Jacksonville, Fla., with Cadet Stafford; Miss Annie Bell, of Staunton, Va., with Cadet G. Nicholas; Miss Lewis, of Lexington, Va., with Captain LaPrade; Miss Richardson, of Buena Vista, with Cadet McCown; Miss Helen Stevens, of Richmond, Va., with Cadet Phister; Miss Huer, of Roanoke, Va., with Cadet A. Bell; Miss Mary Mearns, of Richmond, Va., with Cadet Becker; Miss Price, of Galva, Va., with Cadet Gentry; Miss Pleson, of Cincinnati, Ohio, with Cadet Caffee; Miss Helen Patton, of Lynchburg, Va., with Cadet T. Malone; Miss McLean, of Washington, D. C., with Cadet H. V. Rooley; Miss Tate, of Norfolk, Va., with Cadet C. Wilson; Miss

Allen, of Staunton, Va., with Cadet W. Lindsey; Miss Hiltch, of Norfolk, Va., with Cadet T. Bain; Miss Powell, of Staunton, Va., with Cadet Rountree; Miss Adams, of Lynchburg, Va., with Cadet Owen; Miss Paxton, of Natural Bridge, Va., with Cadet Harrison; Miss Glasgow, of Glasgow, Va., with Cadet Marston; Miss Brockenbrough, of Lexington, Va., with Cadet Perry; Miss L. Haskins, of Lexington, Va., with Cadet Doyle; Miss Dunlap, of Lexington, Va., with Cadet R. Rankin; Miss T. Miller, of Roanoke, Va., with Cadet E. Lyerly; Miss Tins, of Lexington, Va., with Cadet McCready; Miss Moore, of Lexington, Va., with Cadet Whitney; Miss Edmonds, of Lynchburg, Va., with Cadet Gill; Miss Drewry, of Raleigh, N. C., with Cadet Tullaferris; Miss Dunnigan, of New York City, with Cadet W. P. Johnson; Miss Smith, of Seattle, Wash., with Cadet Coffenden; Miss Owen, of Lynchburg, Va., with Cadet H. Adams; Miss Boatwright, of Roanoke, Va., with Cadet W. T. Davant.

The choruses were: Mrs. J. S. Boatwright, of Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. Harry Rankin, of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. H. B. Greer, of Illinois; Mrs. E. M. Pendleton, Mrs. N. B. Tucker, Mrs. Hunter Pendleton, Mrs. S. B. Walker, Mrs. W. V. Nichols, Mrs. H. C. Ford, Mrs. Benjamin Tugue, Mrs. J. W. Gilmore, Mrs. H. L. Laird, Mrs. Charles Watts, Mrs. Francis Mallory, Mrs. Reid White, Miss Annie White and Miss Florence Duvall, of Lexington.

Practically the same list was present at the Easter hop Saturday night. The number of stags, the excellent music, good floor and delightful informality of the V. M. I. hops have gained a singular popularity with visiting girls.

MARTINSVILLE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MARTINSVILLE, VA., April 28.—The ladies of Mildred Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, of this place, gave a "Dixie Tea" at the home of Dr. John W. Simmons, Church Street, on Thursday evening, from six to ten o'clock, which was largely attended and highly enjoyed by those present. The Martinsville brass band was in attendance and discoursed several stirring and patriotic airs during the evening. The ladies cleared about $60, which is to be applied to the improvement of the monument lot and for the entertainment of the old soldiers on Memorial Day.

George Stutz, alias Sheriff, who has become notorious as a burglar and jail breaker, was recaptured in Winston a few days ago, and brought back to Martinsville. The sheriff took no chances with George this time, but chained him in his cell.